PAVEY DREW UP THE PAPER.

It Declares that the Mayor Was Elected on an Independent Platform.

ANTI-MACHINE MEN READY TO FIGHT.

They Predict Speedy Defeat for the Boss If He Tries to Block Reform Legislation.

(Special to The Evening World.)
ALBANY, Feb. 19.—Mayor Strong will tomorrow morning receive a document from Albany signed by eleven Republican members of the New York City delegation endorsing his administration. The endorsement is the inspiration of Assemblyman Pavey, leader of the Reformers in the Assembly. He drew up the testimonials last night, and to-day circulated it among the Republican members from New York City. It was signed without hesitation by Assemblymen Percy, Lawson, Wilds, Reinhardt, Andrews, Bold, Steinberg, Niles, Miller, Conkling and Mr. Pavey. The six Republicans who refused to sign it are Messrs. Hamilton, Hoops, Hutton, Wilks, Adler and Bell. Mr. Bell, although a reformer, did not think it policy to affix his signature, as he believes it will create dissensions in the party. The testimonials are as follows:

The Testimonials.
ASSEMBLY CHAMBER.
ALBANY, Feb. 19, 1895.

We, the undersigned, Republicans, Assemblymen from New York City, desire to give public and formal expression to our opinion upon the existing political situation in New York City.

In making this statement we do not mean to reflect upon the personal character or political motive of any person. The judgment of any leader, great or small, is always open to question or criticism.

Mayor Strong was not elected upon a Republican party platform. As a candidate, he stood upon the platform of the Committee of Seventy. The Republican party in the city and county of New York subscribed to that platform by nominating him as its candidate, and it stands pledged to his support.

As a candidate Mayor Strong had the confidence of the independent men, whose votes were absolutely essential to the success of the city ticket. He still retains the confidence of these men.

Public opinion in New York City demands the passage of certain reform measures relating to municipal affairs. The Republican party will be held responsible for any delay or failure to pass these measures.

No mistake of Mayor Strong nor any personal disappointment over the distribution of patronage will excuse such delay or failure.

It caused a sensation.

The circulation of the above declaration of independence by the reform members of New York City created a great sensation among the Platt followers, and there was some talk of hustling by them to prevent a spread of the feeling expressed in the document.

The endorsement, however, appeared to meet with the approval of a good many Republicans who are not usually numbered among the anti-Plattsites.

The friends of Platt charge Corporation Counsel Scott directly with inspiring the memorial, and are very angry about it. They say that Mr. Scott came here for no other purpose than to get the signatures of the State capital late this afternoon, and if the present plans are carried out there will be a big powwow to-night.

From present indications, the war dance, which will be the leading feature of the Assembly, will be fast and fur-

Thackeray, Picario and Grange Camp Capture Events.

No Hope of Reviving the Foreign Book at Arlington.

(Special to The Evening World.)
RACE TRACK, ARLINGTON, Feb. 19.—The pleasant weather combined with a fair card, attracted a large crowd to the track to-day. The going was still heavy, but was drying out nicely.

The Association has abandoned all hope of renewing the foreign book, though strenuous efforts have been made to continue it. The meeting will positively continue on the original lines, at least.

RIBBONS TO THE DOGS

Judges Selecting Winners at the Big Garden Show.

Faust, Juno, La Prince and Major McKinley Find Favor.

"Handsome Dan," Vale's Mascot, Admired for His Ugliness.

This year's bench show eclipses any of its predecessors in the number of entries and the quality of the dogs. The strongest class is the St. Bernards, and they make an unusually fine exhibit. There are hordes of fox terriers, pointers and English and Irish setters.

In the smaller classes, the Japanese spaniels and Yorkshire terriers prevail. The prize this year aggregate $15,000, of which $10,000 is in regular prizes and $5,000 in specials.

Up in the south gallery are the kennels of what are called the toy classes. This is the attractive feature of the show for the fair sex. Most of the exhibits are petted creatures, and they are surrounded with more comforts and luxuries than those with which a mother would surround her first born.

Mrs. Fred J. Grant's Yorkshire terrier Jessie reposed elegantly in a fancy wicker basket, lined with soft blue silk, trimmed with lace. Jessie seemed insensible to the compliments that her fair visitors showered upon her. Perhaps she had grown callous.

The features of this line were two King Charles Spaniels in a miniature house built of bamboo, elaborately thatched with brush. There were pictures on the sides of this little dog house and four rugs for the pets to lie upon.

The black and tan attracted considerable attention from their smallness. Boote by Prince Dotty, is not much bigger than a rat. She squeaked through the narrow bars of her cage this morning. She is a beautiful looking beauty as can be found, is one of the features of the show. The Yale men swear by him. The first blue ribbon carried out of the ring was taken by His Lordship, a black-looking bull, by Lord Pedrington. He is owned by Mr. Bernard Duke of Lincoln, who won many prizes in England, only took fourth prize in his class. The dog is a magnificent specimen of his breed, and is by far the largest dog in the show. He arrived at the show this morning, having been a passenger in the steamship Galileo.

The judging began at 2 o'clock, and owing to the large class of entries, progress was necessarily slow.

The classes were judged as follows:

Mastiffs.—Five classes. Judge, James Taylor, Manchester, England.

Challenge Dogs.—First, J. L. Winchell, Champion Black Bull; second, Dr. C. A. Louget, La Prince; third, Dr. C. A. Louget, Juno; fourth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Faust; fifth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Major McKinley.

St. Bernards.—First, Dr. C. A. Louget, Juno; second, Dr. C. A. Louget, Faust; third, Dr. C. A. Louget, Major McKinley; fourth, Dr. C. A. Louget, La Prince; fifth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Handsome Dan.

Yorkshire Terriers.—First, Dr. C. A. Louget, Jessie; second, Dr. C. A. Louget, La Prince; third, Dr. C. A. Louget, Juno; fourth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Faust; fifth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Major McKinley.

Japanese Spaniels.—First, Dr. C. A. Louget, La Prince; second, Dr. C. A. Louget, Juno; third, Dr. C. A. Louget, Faust; fourth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Major McKinley; fifth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Handsome Dan.

English and Irish Setters.—First, Dr. C. A. Louget, La Prince; second, Dr. C. A. Louget, Juno; third, Dr. C. A. Louget, Faust; fourth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Major McKinley; fifth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Handsome Dan.

Pointers.—First, Dr. C. A. Louget, La Prince; second, Dr. C. A. Louget, Juno; third, Dr. C. A. Louget, Faust; fourth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Major McKinley; fifth, Dr. C. A. Louget, Handsome Dan.

The Belmont-Morgan syndicate issued their prospectus for the new 4 per cent. loan this afternoon. The bonds are offered at 112 1/4, with accrued interest from Feb. 1.

Of the purchase price 112 1/4 will be payable on allotment, and the remaining 100 per cent. on or before March 1, or upon delivery of the bonds, as provided, with interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum from March 1.

The subscription list will be opened at 10 A. M. to-morrow, and will be closed without notice. Payments must be made to J. P. Morgan & Co. in cash or with certified checks on New York banks. Allotments will be made in four days from date.

The syndicate's circular is as follows:

"Sixty-two million three hundred and fifteen thousand dollars United States 4 per cent. bonds in coupon form of $50, $100, and $1,000, and registered form of $50, $100, $1,000 and $10,000 each.

"Interest payable February 1, May 1, August 1, and November 1.

"NEW YORK, Feb. 19, 1895.

"On behalf of the syndicate we offer for sale the above-described bonds, bearing interest from Feb. 1, 1895, and maturing Feb. 1, 1900. The price is 112 1/4 per cent. of which 112 1/4 per cent. will be payable on allotment, and the remaining 100 per cent. on or before March 1, or upon delivery of the bonds as provided. The syndicate will be responsible for the delivery of the bonds to the subscribers in full payment of the subscription price.

"The subscription list will be opened at 10 A. M. on Feb. 20, and will be closed without notice. Bills will be received by the syndicate, and the subscription price must be paid to Messrs. J. P. Morgan & Co. in cash or by certified check.

A commission of 1-2 per cent. was paid for gold to-day by those requiring the yellow metal to pay for extending into July. It will bear a coupon of 135, for each $1,000 payable Aug. 1. This is at the rate of 114 1/2 per cent. per annum on the par value of the scrip, supposing it to date from Feb. 1. The price of 127 per $1,000 is equal to 112 1/4 in London and 117 1/2 here. The latter will not be the issue price here because of a difference in form of payment. The price here has been raised and will probably be 112 3/8.

There has been some discussion regarding the London price for the new loan. The price of 113 1/2 per cent. is obtained by dividing 127 by 2. The reason for this is that in London all dollars are taken as equal to 4 shillings even, or one-fifth of the pound sterling. Consequently $50 equals 100. The difference in price between the London and New York prices is the correction of this discrepancy between the dollar as reckoned for commerce in London and the actual dollar.

The taking up of the Jones silver bill by the Senate to-day convinced Wall Street that this resolution would be favorably acted upon, and "silver talk" was strong in local financial circles.

Opinion is divided among the brokers as to the effect the action on silver will have on the bonds. This afternoon there was a report in the street that Secretary

Will Probably Hunt Ducks When Congress Adjourns.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Both the President and Secretary Carlisle intend leaving Washington for a rest almost immediately on the adjournment of Congress.

The President will probably go to North Carolina on a duck-hunting trip. He will likely take with him a party of friends and probably will be gone a week or ten days.

Secretary Carlisle has not yet fully matured his plans, but it is expected that he will be absent at least three weeks or a month.

HEROIC RESCUE AT SEA.

Crew of the Rialto Saved by the Tauric.

The White Star steamer Tauric, which arrived to-day from Liverpool, picked up at sea and brought to this port Capt. Baines and thirteen shipwrecked seamen of the British ship Rialto, of Liverpool.

Capt. Jones, of the Tauric, reports that on Feb. 10, lat. 51.00, long. 19.75, the lookout sighted a vessel flying signals of distress.

On getting close as possible to the wreck, a boat was launched with much difficulty and sent in charge of the chief officer and seven men to rescue the unfortunate crew, some of whom could be seen standing on the deck of their vessel and others clinging to the rigging.

Several attempts were made to board the wreck, but were unsuccessful, owing to the tremendous heavy seas running at the time. The boat went around the vessel to leeward, where better weather was made and the chief officer called on the crew to jump into the sea.

Cleanly a life was made fast to the wreck and all hands jumped aboard and managed to reach the boat in safety.

The vessel proved to be the ship Rialto, of Liverpool, from Valparaiso for Antwerp, with a cargo of guano.

Capt. Baines said that on Feb. 8, the vessel encountered a heavy sea, the cargo shifted and the Rialto sprang a leak. The pumps were started and kept going until they became choked by the cargo of guano. The men had given themselves up for lost when the Tauric came in sight.
